

“It’s possible you read too many books.” “No, I definitely do that.”

WELCOME TO THE . . .

LITTLE BOOKSHOP of MURDERS

One burnt-out lawyer. One shiny new bookshop. One dead customer.

Former lawyer Keera Munroe wants to put her past behind her with nothing more challenging than selling enough books to pay the bills.

But when Keera opens a bookshop in idyllic Crossways, there’s a lot she cannot leave behind, like the fact she’s hard-wired to seek out truth and justice. Or her nose for trouble—which is telling her that village life is not quite as lovely as it appears . . . Right about the time the first body turns up.

‘Mum loves a good murder.’
‘Murder mystery,’ I can’t help but correct her.
Actual murders are absolutely no part of my lovely new bookshop life
and are firmly in my past.

Announcing Nicki Thornton’s first crime novel for adults

978106827000 Pub Date: 16 October 2025

Available from Gardners Books

£9.99 rrp

Paperback original

New from Chimneys Publishing

Cover art by Holly Astle

Nicki Thornton is the bestselling author of two crime-fantasy series for children. Her books have been translated into 15 languages. She has been nominated for awards including CrimeFest Best Crime Novel for Children (twice), and for the Prix Elbakin.Net for fantasy writing

‘One of the most original children’s writers around’ - Waterstones

“I need to find the right thing so that I look at least reasonably smart, trustworthy, and not at all like some panicky, over-imaginative, full of conspiracies and conjecture bookseller who reads too many books. And thinks they’re an amateur sleuth.”

Will appeal to readers who love English detective fiction, from Elly Griffiths to Anthony Horowitz

Nicki Thornton’s debut crime novel was inspired by nearly twenty years working in and with bookshops. She discovered bookshops are naturally places where gossip is shared. Having been a lifelong fan of crime fiction, she decided it would be the perfect place to set a murder mystery series.

“My experience has taught me most people lie and keep secrets when they talk to the police. I think the police expect it.”
– Keera Munroe

‘Thornton, like Christie, can turn murder into a thoroughly comforting bedtime read’ -The Telegraph

Nicki.thornton.nt@gmail.com